

Biography Przemyslaw Jaczewski

Przemyslaw (known as "Szam") is a photographer and a camera operator. He works since 2013 at "Polin", the Museum of the History of Polish Jews, as Audiovisual Specialist, and since 2017 as Digital Collection Administrator. He is responsible for the creation of Museum's Digital Repository. His duties include the creation of Museum's digitisation lab as well as digitisation of items from the Museum's collection. He also created, prepared and conducted digitisation and cinematography workshops held at the Museum.

Since October 2016, he also works with Rachel Kesselman on all the visual documents of the "Kesselman Museum in Radomsko".

"I was very positively surprised by the "Kesselman Museum" 's initiative from the very beginning. I strongly believe that this kind of open air museum will encourage people to learn about Jewish roots of their hometowns. I am sure it will bring the Radomsk Jewish past back to life".
