*"This Jewish open air Museum in Radomsko is the unforgettable memory of the Jewish city that existed here. Ruchel Laja Kesselman took upon herself to do alone the work of a company ! She was inspired, decided and acted in a record time ! She has undertaken all possible historical research and I am pleased to have been able to contribute to finding 3 major Jewish places of religious life in Radomsk. She went straight to the point to revive the Jewish memory of Poland directly in the city, in the sight of all. Hats off!
May she be blessed for all her good deeds !*

The Radomskers and anyone interested in the "Kesselman Museum" can contact me by phone in Bnei Brak (Israel) at 00 972-3-570-38-21. Cordial shalom. Rav Haim Benish".
